

- to promote links in teaching, research and cultural activities.
- to develop and to encourage joint research, seminars, conferences, workshops, and to also assist each other in obtaining external funding from outside sources.
- Financial arrangements for collaborative research, seminars, workshops, conferences, and other such activities will be negotiated separately and will be subject to the availability of funds.